SUMMARY

A visual narrative of strategic invisibility and the resilient reclamation of space, reflecting the constant risk assessment of the queer body in both local and international landscapes. Navigating the terrain of conditional belonging In this powerful addition to the ESTRANGED series, ARJAN SPANNENBURG explores the concept of 'geographic identity'—the way one's sense of self must be edited or amplified depending on the surrounding environment. MATERIALS

Matt plexiglas

Giclée print Ultrachrome mounted on dibond with Mat plexiglas. This finish is designed for spaces with high ambient light or large windows. The matte surface diffuses light to eliminate harsh reflections, providing a sophisticated, soft-touch finish that allows the image to be viewed clearly from any angle without a "mirror effect."

Diasec Anti-Reflex

Giclée print Ultrachrome mounted on Dibond with Diasec Anti-Reflex. An exhibition-grade finish that utilises the patented Diasec® chemical bonding process. This creates a permanent, airless seal between the print and a specialised anti-reflective acrylic. It provides the structural "monolith" look of a contemporary mount while ensuring that even under heavy gallery spotlights, the focus remains entirely on the artwork's detail.

Diasec True-life

Giclée print Ultrachrome mounted on dibond with Diasec True-life. The absolute pinnacle of art production. This tier uses TruLife® acrylic, an optic-grade material similar to high-end camera lenses. It provides a stunning "liquid" depth and 3D-like colour vibrancy, while simultaneously being anti-reflective, scratch-resistant, and anti-static.

Art must make an impact

The Silent Power of Vulnerability

Arjan Spannenburg (born Texel, 1978), Spannenburg Art, 200, q18/14 «E»hT,,c"

We witness adolescents in a transient, uncertain phase of life. These sensitive portraits capture subjects alone with their thoughts, yet they simultaneously radiate a profound need for communication with the outside world, a search for support, understanding, and love.

Representation by Galleries & Exhibitions Beyond permanent representation by ZERP Galerie (Rotterdam), Spannenburg's photography has been selected for prestigious international platforms and events, including:

- Amsterdam
- Kunstlinie, Almere
- Schwules Museum, Berlin
- Paratissima, Italia
- Tongerlohuys, Roosendaal

His works are held in diverse private collections and are often seen in prominent public locations, including the City Hall of The Hague.
