Spannenburg Art is a leading contemporary art gallery, showcasing a diverse range of international artists. We are proud to present 'Where It Calms' by Arjan Spannenburg, a powerful and thought-provoking work that challenges the viewer's perception of reality and identity. The artwork is a masterpiece of modern art, featuring a figure in a sleek, black, form-fitting bodysuit and a gas mask, standing with one hand on their hip. The figure's face is obscured by the mask, which has large, circular lenses, creating a haunting and enigmatic expression. The figure's body is covered in a material that reflects light, giving it a metallic, almost futuristic appearance. The figure is standing against a dark, plain background, which emphasizes the figure's form and the texture of the bodysuit. The overall mood is one of mystery and tension, as the viewer is left to wonder about the figure's identity and the story behind the artwork. 'Where It Calms' is a powerful statement on the human condition, exploring themes of isolation, identity, and the search for meaning in a complex and often chaotic world. It is a work that will continue to resonate with audiences for years to come.
